The Helmer and Clarice Krehbiel Papers were received by Musselman Library on 11/6/2015 via Chris Moser, who transported the papers on Clarice’s behalf. During the tenure of Howard Raid and Howard Krehbiel, previous archivists, Helmer and Clarice donated a large grandfather clock and a hand-drawn map of Krehbiel ancestral lands. These papers include genealogical research on Krehbiel and related families. The papers were received in a suitcase, which was not retained. The contents were appraised and processed Carrie Phillips with assistance from Kenny Beeker during November 9-11, 2015. Books and periodicals were checked against library’ collections and processed via regular library donation protocol. (Carrie Phillips, Archives & Special Collections Librarian)
